

<h2 style="text-align: center;">Tutor Self-Assessment</h2> Please fill out and return at interview	Very Much	Sometimes	Not Always	Very Little
Do I enjoy meeting and working with people?
Am I really committed to tutoring?
Do I have perseverance even when I confront problems?
Do I enjoy challenges?
Am I patient?
Am I motivated to learn? (If not, how can I motivate anyone else?)
Do I enjoy reading? (If not, how can I inspire that enjoyment in others?)
Do I enjoy writing or is it a chore?
Do I really believe that everyone has a right to read and can read or do I think it's a mysterious, difficult process only to be taught by "experts"?
Am I empathetic?
Do I respect my pupils for what and who they are?
Am I able to communicate clearly and effectively? (Communication means both speaking and listening .)
Am I able to offer praise and encouragement to my student for small successes ?
Am I creative and flexible so that I can plan and present a variety of approaches?
Am I understanding of other problems in my student's life that may be compounded by their low literacy?
Am I able to establish a comfortable/non-threatening atmosphere so that my student won't feel anxious and afraid?
Am I able to respect my student's confidences?
Am I able to be a facilitator and model behaviour that will encourage my student to view learning as a life-long experience?
Am I honest about myself and my own strengths and weaknesses? Can I share these openly with my student?
Am I teachable?				